Dear John,

Here is possible chapter 14, The False Oswald. I had hoped to be able include chapter 10, Oswald's Murder: The Police and the Press, but the mail from the next town will have left before that is ready. I'll mail it tomorrow morning from Washington and hope to include with it chapter 9, The Witness and Their Treatment. The Police and the Press is the last one I'll mail before they are retyped. Typing on 9 is almost done.

Please tell whoever edits that when I ramble it is usually because either the material isn't going to be in elsewhere ir because I ramble. But this Report is not set up like ducks in a row. I do not plan to repeat much.

Sincerely,
